LOUISIANA'S PARTICIPATION IN THE AMERICAN DIPLOMA PROJECT

STAFF COMMENTS

The Louisiana Alignment Team has been informed that ACHIEVE has completed its final review regarding the proposed Alignment Standards for Mathematics and English and awaits their response. In the meantime, these proposed Standards have been instrumental in guiding the ongoing work of the High School Redesign Commission in several areas, including the development of new high school graduation requirements.

In related matters, Mr. Gerard Killebrew has been invited to represent Louisiana and share its successful process for standards development with other states at the American Council for Education-ACHIEVE Summit in Washington D.C. on January 21-22, 2007 and at the American Diploma Project Strategy Session in Dallas, TX on February 8-9, 2007.
